WILL DELAY THE DEFINITE ACTION

LEGISLATURE CAN NOT ACT UP ON STEPHENSON REPORT FOR MONTH.

HEARSGOVERNOR'S ADDRESS

Then Adjourns Until Next Week—
New Bills Are Introduced in the Senate This Morning.

Madison, Wis., Jan. 12.—Whether or not Senator Isaac Stephenson is finally sustained in his right to his seat in the national senate, it seems very certain that he will be made the target for some hot political shot in the next few months. The state legislature, being a progressive body, will surely follow the recommendation of the senate investigating committee. Messrs. Marsh, Hastings and Morris, in that a copy of its report be filed with the United States senate for appropriate action.

Whatever disposition is made of the case by the latter body is, of course, entirely problematical and will be determined, undoubtedly, in large measure by the precedent to be set in the Loring case and by political events generally. The fact that the federal senate is controlled more or less by men of the conservative stamp lends color to the belief in some quarters here that the Wisconsin senate may be given a coat of whitewash or at any event will let down easy.

Senator Stephenson's statement to the press yesterday that the present report is a minority report is pointed out to be a mistaken impression. The senate committee was named, and the other committee adjourned, and conducted an independent investigation. All three members signed the report, which therefore is a majority report.

The committee makes scathing criticism of former Speaker (now attorney general) Levi H. Hancock of his part in the campaign on behalf of Senator Stephenson, this part of the report comprising one of the most sensational chapters in the long document. Hancock is therefore urged over the past Attorney General Hancock may be expected to take when the governor, acting on the committee's recommendations, puts it up to him (Hancock) to start proceedings.

If Hancock should refuse to take such action it is conceivable that Gov. McFarland or the legislature might enforce such a move, or that the prosecutions might be placed in the hands of a special attorney for that purpose. In any event, the matter will not come to an immediate issue, for it is said the publication of the voluminous report and appendix is a matter of fully a month, and that further delay is possible.

Following the reading of his message to the legislature today by Governor McFarland, the two houses adopted a joint resolution providing for adjournment until ten o'clock Tuesday morning. A sharp rules fight in the assembly started today.

The administration wishes to follow the old custom of permitting the speaker to appoint the various committees. The democrats and conservatives will vigorously oppose this plan, holding out for the appointment of committees by a joint committee of like number of each party.

Both factions favor the putting down of the number of committees during the session.

The committee resolution introduced by H. V. Schwabach, started the first clash in the present session along political lines.

The senate today expressed dissatisfaction over its present temporary quarters in the old supreme court chamber. The body appointed a committee to confer with the capital authorities in order to procure a more convenient meeting place.

Senator Burke introduced a bill in the senate today appropriating three hundred thousand dollars annually by the legislature for highway improvements; four hundred thousand dollars for the operation of a blinder twin plant at Waupun; fifteen thousand dollars for a site for a new state normal school at Green Bay, and an amendment to the twenty per cent law cutting it to ten per cent.

Among the senate appointments of interest to Rock County people was that of W. A. Mahoney of Clinton, as postmaster. In the Assembly Grant U. Fisher was given the choice of senate and selected No. 99 in the last row. The assembly has handsome new steel desks, of the latest model. The remainder of the seats not selected by the senior members were drawn for by lot.

IMPORTANT SESSION OF TARIFF LEADERS

Lenroot of Wisconsin Talks to the Members of Commission on Present Tariff Views.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 12.—Several important addresses were made today before the National Tariff Commission association. The report of Rep. Lenroot of Wisconsin declared that if the tariff cannot stand in the investigation of facts it ought to be wiped out, but he said it had nothing to fear. He expressed his opinion that proper investigation followed by a tariff honestly framed would make the tariff system more firmly entrenched in this country.

President Kirby of the Manufacturers' association, pointed out what his association had done in the tariff investigation abroad. Favorable results in this direction, he said, could be had only by a properly constituted permanent commission. Republican member Burke favored free trade; in fact, he wanted all the knowledge that can be secured abroad. This, he thought, was the best way to protection.

cause of Age Rule—Charles Markham His Successor.

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 12.—After a continuous service of twenty years, in the course of which he rose from a minor position to be the head of the entire system, James T. Harahan today retired from the presidency of the Illinois Central Railroad Company. In compliance with the rule of the company which makes it necessary for officials to relinquish their positions upon attaining the age of seventy years, Mr. Harahan is succeeded in the presidency by Charles H. Markham, who was elected to the position by the board of directors at their annual meeting in New York last month.

PROGRESSIVES ARE PUT IN BAD HOLE BY THE DEMOCRATS

Motion To Have Lower House Name
Committee Membership Meets
With Great Difficulty.

Madison, Wis., Jan. 12.—The progressive republican majority in the lower house of the legislature this morning faced an embarrassing situation in an attempt on the part of the democrats to amend the rules so as to have the committee selected by the house instead of by the speaker.

A resolution to this effect was finally laid over under the rules but it has started a scare and a merry fight will begin on Tuesday, when it reappears. Speaker Loomis, a progressive republican, had laid his plans for appointing the committees by next week, the progressive members having indicated of the committees their preferences.

Now if the republicans as a whole exercise their power and kill the resolution, they will thereby refuse to recognize that the principle advocated by the progressives in the lower house of congress applies to the state assembly.

LAKE MICHIGAN HAS DECIDED INFLUENCE

Saved Southern Half of State From Severe Cold Weather Predicted.

Milwaukee, Jan. 12.—Lake Michigan saved the southern half of Wisconsin from suffering zero weather which was forecasted in weather reports yesterday, according to local weather bureau officials. ## BASEBALL ASSOC'N MAY JOIN MAJORS

Directors of American Association Reported to be Considering Entrance Into Major League Field.

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 12.—In view of the agitation over the reclassification problem and the abolition of the draft system and the persistent talk that the American Association means to enter the major league field unless both questions are settled to its satisfaction, unusual interest naturally attaches to the annual meeting of the association, which went into session behind closed doors at the Congress hotel today.

These and other questions along the same line probably will be thoroughly discussed at the meeting, though it is not likely that any definite action will be decided upon at this time in view of the fact that the agreement between the American Association and the National organization will not expire until next fall.

The business announced for trans-action at the meeting is wholly of a routine character. Several minor changes in the constitution are to be discussed and voted upon and a president for the ensuing year will be chosen. While there has been some talk of opposition to President Chivington it is not believed any serious effort will be made to defeat him for re-election.

CHICAGO WILL BE BIG STEEL CENTER

Belief That Chicago Would Be

INSURGENTS NOT TO GIVE UP CONTEST

TAKE ACTION OF THE HOUSE RE-CENTLY MERELY AN INCIDENT

"THERE IS NO SIGNIFICANCE"

Congressman Norris Gives Out An Authentic Statement On The Subject Today.

(BY UNITED PRESS.)

Washington, D. C., Jan. 12.—Representative George W. Norris, floor leader of the house insurgents and author of the famous "Norris resolution" that precipitated the fight against Speaker Cannon and the house rules fight in the house for the United Press. The insurgent members of the house, with a few of the democrats, are able today to point to a record that is consistently in favor of a progressive conduct of public business in the house. We were apparently over-ridden Monday by a combination of republicans and democrats, but our record is clear. The effect of our fight of last spring is not nullified and the progressive rules that we then wrote into the regulations of the house are not in any way abrogated. The fight for progressive American principles in legislation will go on. Monday's action of the house was almost a mere temporary setback.

The attack on the precedent set by the house ruling on the so-called Norris amendment to the rules last spring when it was declared that a motion to amend the rules is of the highest constitutional privilege and the attacks on the insurgent rule amendments that have been in progress since the beginning of this session of congress including the filibuster against the democratic "motion to discharge rule" are typical examples of machine rule in the house. There is no doubt in my mind that they were inspired by a ruling of the "old guard" in the house with a view to discrediting the ends accomplished by the bitter insurgent fight of last March.

Monday's rules fight was not an insurgent engagement. It was started by Representative Fuller, a close friend and lieutenant of the speaker. He offered his resolution and made an argument to the effect that it was privileged under the constitution, citing the decision of the house on my own resolution last March to sustain this point. He then voted against his own position to sustain the ruling of the speaker that declared his resolution out of order. The appeal from the decision of the chair was taken by Representative Gaines of West Virginia, another lieutenant of the speaker, but when the roll call was called, Mr. Gaines voted against his own appeal. The vote sustained the ruling of the speaker. Both Mr. Gaines and Mr. Fuller last March voted to sustain the chair in ruling the Norris resolution out of order and voted against the resolution itself.

It looks to me very much like a frame-up brought about by the speaker and his friends for a vindication. The democrats who voted to sustain the speaker's ruling that motions to amend the rules are not of the highest constitutional privilege, declared they did so on the ground that that vote of last March established a contrary precedent was established a precedent. The exigencies of the situation in the house last March fully justified legislative investigation but one was not necessary.

On the seventh of March, Representative Crumpacker, chairman of the house census committee, had called up on the floor of the house, without reporting it from committee, a resolution amending the census law. Speaker Cannon ruled that this was a question of the highest constitutional privilege, as the constitution imposes on the congress the duty of legislating for a census every ten years and the house sustains the ruling.

My resolution claimed privilege on exactly the same grounds—that is, that the duty of making rules for the house is prescribed in the constitution in the house and reversing the speaker's ruling against this, simply decided consistently with the precedent established in the ruling on the Crumpacker resolution.

This is not a revolution. This is acting according to a precedent established by a vote of the house and by the speaker's ruling. It was proceeded according to all the usual means employed in legislative activity in the house. No amount of equivocation can conceal the facts that, if the ruling of the speaker and the house stand right on the Crumpacker resolution then my resolution of last March was in order, and the house was right then in overruling the speaker when he declared it out of order and when the speaker was wrong Monday when he reversed the action.

But the fight for a free legislative body in the house, directly responsible to the people will go on. And there is no doubt that in the end the cause of the progressive conduct of the affairs of the republic must prevail.

SHEEHAN SLATED FOR SENATORSHIP

Mayor Gaynor Now Admits Tammany Man Will Win.

MURPHY CONTROLS SITUATION

Gotham Executive Favored Mr. Shepard, But Was Unable to Secure His Indorsement in Caucus to Be Held Monday.

New York, Jan. 12.—Mayor Gaynor has admitted that there seemed to be no longer any doubt that William F. Sheehan would be selected to succeed Chauncey M. Depew. For the last three weeks the mayor has been endeavoring to persuade Charles F. Murphy and John P. McCooey, the head of the Democratic organization in Queens, to instruct their men to vote for the choice of Shepard in the caucus to be held in Albany next Monday night. Until a few days ago Mr. Gaynor thought that the two leaders would follow his advice.

His mind on the situation was changed when after Mr. Murphy had left for Albany, a letter was brought to him in which the Tammany leader stated that the Shepard proposition was all off. The mayor would not give out the letter for publication, but the following dictated statement is authoritative:

"It is known that the mayor has been trying to get Mr. Murphy to favor Mr. Shepard, but until now the situation has been in suspense. It was learned that Mr. Murphy had informed the mayor that while he (Murphy), personally would like to see Mr. Shepard elected, he could not get the leaders of his organization to approve of the plan for the nomination of Mr. Shepard."

The opinion is held in the city hall that while Mr. McCooey openly states that the members of his organization will vote for Shepard at the caucus next Monday, that vote will merely be a complimentary one, and after that vote has been cast the Kings county men, in obedience to an understanding which has been reached between Murphy and McCooey, will vote for Sheehan. That, of course, will mean the election of Sheehan. In order to make his position clear, Mayor Gaynor issued a statement in the form of a letter to Senator Loomis of Buffalo.

"I regret," wrote the mayor, "that I was not at the city hall when you called to see me. I can only say that I am heartily in favor of the election of Edward M. Shepard as senator. He stands for everything which is best in politics. His election would bring credit to the state. During a generation the state of New York has been represented in the United States senate by men who were mere lobbyists from their youth up, or corruptionists in politics. We now have the chance to set our face against that. Will we do it? There never was a plainer case, and if it be evaded, the bad effect thereof will long survive."

MODERN SIAMESE TWINS

New Orleans Surgeons to Perform Novel Operation.

Twins Are Four Years Old and Reside on Island of Samar in the Philippine Islands.

New Orleans, Jan. 12.—All the way from the island of Samar in the Philippines, Lucio and Simplicio Godino, modern Siamese twins, have come to New Orleans in the hope that some of the surgeons here can separate them. The twins are linked together in much the same manner of their more famous twins from Siam, the connection being at the base of the spinal column.

J. R. Louis, a wealthy mining engineer of Los Angeles, Cal., who is paying for the trip and operation; Dr. James H. Dunlavey, also of Los Angeles, and the father of the twins accompanied them to this city.

Each twin, linked as they are, feels the other's emotions as plainly as he feels his own. When Lucio walks forward Simplicio walks. When Lucio wants to sleep his brother feels drowsy. When he is hungry, so is Simplicio. There was no trouble until recently when the usual order of things changed. Lucio was taken sick while his brother remained perfectly well. The twins are 4 years of age.

CHURCH LEADER KILLS SELF

Mrs. Ellberg Takes Poison—Was Short in Church Accounts $400.

Butte, Mont., Jan. 12.—Mrs. Nellie G. R. Ellberg, a leader of Christian Science in Butte, and for years first reader of the First church, committed suicide in a lodging house.

With two other members of the church she visited an attorney and during a conference excused herself, went direct to the lodging house and took poison, which apparently she had purchased some time before. No entries in her diary, but it appears a small church account of $400 is involved in her affairs.

N. Y. MURDER MYSTERY

Hunter Finds Remains of Small Boy in Lonely Farm Field.

Empty Bottle Labeled Carbollic Acid Near Body—Kidnaping and Murder Theory Advanced.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 12.—The police of Albany, Troy and Schoenectady have a baffling murder mystery on their hands. Harry Spaulding, of Albany, was hunting in a lonely field on the Duinker farm, on the Schoenectady road, a few miles west of this city, when he found the dead body of a boy, apparently 5 years old.

Near the body was found an empty bottle labeled carbollic acid, and the appearance of the boy's mouth, lips and throat prompts the police to believe the deadly fluid was forced into the boy's mouth. Despite the fact that the body was found in a muddy field, 1,000 feet from the roadway, there was no trace of dirt on the lad's clothing. The police suspect the boy was kidnaped from some other city, killed and the body thrown into the field. The boy was dressed in a white Lord Fauntleroy suit and wore black stockings.

WANTS TARIFF COMMISSION

Senator Newlands Contents Board Will Take Question Out of Politics.

Washington, Jan. 12.—The creation of a tariff commission along the lines of the interstate commerce commission, with authority to put its findings into effect, was urged in the senate by Senator Newlands. It was the contention of the Nevada senator that the interstate commerce commission act took the railways out of politics, and he believes that a tariff commission patterned after the interstate commerce act, will largely remove the tariff question from the political field.

WARSHIPS DAMAGED

United States Sea Leviathan Loses Its Port Propeller and Tail Shaft.

Washington, Jan. 12.—The battleship Michigan of the Atlantic fleet was partially disabled by losing her port propeller and tail shaft, according to wireless news received at the navy department.

Leisure Essential.

Trees, fields, sunsets, rivers, breezes and the like, must all be enjoyed at leisure. If at all. There is not the slightest use in a man's paying a hurried visit to the country. He may as well go there blindfolded as go in a hurry. He will never see the country. He will have a perception, no doubt, of hedgerows and grass, of green lanes and silent cottages, perhaps of great hills and rocks, of various items which go toward making the country; but the country itself he will never see.—Country Parson.

JACKPOT SCANDAL PROBE FAVORED

Senator Hurburgh Offers Resolution for Investigation.

HOLTSLOW'S SEAT IS VACANT

Resolution Clothes Committee With Full Power to Summon Witnesses, Administer Oaths, Etc.—Special Order for Tuesday.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 12.—The first definite step toward a thorough investigation of the bribery charges which grew out of the Lorimer election and the so-called legislative "jackpot" was taken when the committee of the Illinois senate, reported Senator Holtslow's resignation effective, and requested another resolution empowering the committee to subpoena witnesses and administer oaths, immediately following this a resolution was offered by Senator Hurburgh, authorizing a deep probe, and clothing the special committee with the authority requested.

Both the resolutions of the committee and the Hurburgh resolution were laid over until next Tuesday, when they will be taken up on special order.

That a thorough investigation will be authorized by the senate there is little doubt. Senator Hurburgh's resolution clothing the committee with powers to carry on a complete inquiry, gives as a reason that "Certain official misconduct on the part of certain members of the senate has been charged, wherein it is alleged that certain senators have violated their oaths of office in that they have knowingly and intentionally paid, contributed or received something, or have made or received some promise or promises in the nature of a bribe with intent to influence directly or indirectly the official action of a member or members of the general assembly."

TARIFF BOARD MEETS

Two-Day Session Begun at National Capital.

Opening Address Made by Professor Henry C. Emery of Yale, President of Commission.

Washington, Jan. 12.—With delegates present even from Honolulu, the second convention of the National Tariff Commission association opened a two-day session.

Beginning with an address by Professor Henry C. Emery of Yale, president of the tariff board, speeches were delivered by some prominent advocates of the scientific tariff revision, including H. F. Miles of Racine, Wis., Senator Beveridge of Indiana and Representative McCall of Massachusetts.

The convention is more pretentious than the one held in Indianapolis two years ago, the membership in the association having increased largely since that time.

Chinese Idea of Government.

Here is a Chinese idea of prosperity in a nation: When the sword is rusty, the plow bright, the prisons empty, the granaries full, the steps of the temple worn down and those of the law courts grass-grown, when doctors go aloof, the bakers on horseback, and the men of letters drive in their own carriages, then the empire is well governed.

A BARGAIN!

A young woman, on becoming engaged for a second time, was somewhat astonished at receiving from No. 2 the identical ring she had returned to her first love.

"Why, Charles," she said, "this is the same ring I had when I was engaged to Harry!"

"I know it," replied the young man. "Harry is an old friend of mine, and when he heard of our engagement he came round to congratulate us, and offered to sell me the ring for half cost. He said you liked it very much, so I fitted, so I took it. Good scheme, eh?"

The young woman's sensations are not described.

What Children Teach Us.

Children make us kindly toward all children. They open up fountains of sympathy. Children teach us infinitely more than we can teach them. Children are really given to train up a parent in the way he should go. Children bring us messages straight from heaven—messages of innocence, tenderness, dependence, love. A parent's love and sacrifice—a true father or mother would die for their child—is a vision of the supreme sacrifice in Christ. A true home with the child in the midst becomes a very window of heaven.

Mistletoe on Water Elms.

Contrary to general belief, mistletoe is rarely found on oak trees, and in Oklahoma it is nearly always found on swamp or water elms, which are generally seen growing in lowlands and along river banks. Here it thrives luxuriantly, and does not seem to be affected injuriously by the trees to which it is attached.—Country Life.

TAKEN IN BELOIT FOR STEALING COAT

St. Paul Switchman Takes Overcoat From Hotel and Goes To Beloit.

James Hurley, a switchman on the St. Paul road, was fined twenty dollars and costs amounting in all to $26.05, in the Municipal court this morning, for stealing an overcoat belonging to J. C. Gibbons, from the European hotel, yesterday morning. After taking the overcoat, Hurley went to Beloit, where he was arrested. The Beloit police were on the look-out for the man as they had been informed by the local department of his coming. It was learned by Constable Dulin, who brought Hurley back to this city, that he had tried to dispose of the coat in several places in Beloit.

When brought into court this morning the man pleaded guilty to the charge of stealing the coat but averred that he was a working man, and never had committed the offense if he had not been crazy drunk. He also claimed that he was a working man, had ever taken a switching with the St. Paul road. When given his choice of the fine or twenty days in jail he said that he had some money coming from Milwaukee and requested the court in which to get an order on the company.

Fine $25. W. Hyman better known as "Hank" Hyman, was taken before Judge Phipps this morning, and fined three dollars and costs, totalling four dollars, for being in an intoxicated condition on Franklin street last night.

GAZETTE COMPANY HOST AT A DINNER

Fourth Annual Good Fellowship Gathering Held at Hotel Myers Last Evening.

At the Hotel Myers last evening the Gazette Publishing Company was the host at a dinner given to its employees and their wives. It was the fourth Good Fellowship dinner and covers had been laid for fifty-four. A most delicious repast was served, during the progress of which, A. V. Lytle gave a delightful complimentary concert with a large Victrola, selections from grand opera, popular songs and instrumental selections making up the program. Following the dinner short talks were made by several of the guests present, clever stories told and a most enjoyable evening enjoyed by all present. Several of the speakers gave most interesting reminiscences of the early history of the Gazette, the difficulties that beset the early day publishers when the paper started had to be brought overland by team from Milwaukee and how the paper was printed and distributed in the pioneer days of the state.

TRAINING SCHOOL TO BE STARTED SHORTLY

Permission Received From Superintendent Cary to Hold One In This County.

Rock county is to have the much talked of training school for teachers, permission having been granted in a letter from State Supt. C. P. Cary to County Supt. O. D. Antdahl, this morning. A petition for the permission to establish such a school was sent to the state authorities by the county board at its recent session. It is not known in what part of the county the school will be situated. There are already some twenty-four of these schools in the state and it was decided by the supervisors that although such an institution would be a financial loss to the county it was a necessity in the face of the dearth of rural teachers.

435 TO COMPRISE HOUSE MEMBERSHIP UNDER NEW CENSUS.
Map showing the congressional reapportionment at a glance. Shaded portions indicate states which gain in number of representatives. Unshaded states remain the same as under the previous census.

FACTS ABOUT THE CONGRESSIONAL REAPPORTIONMENT.

Total number of representatives 435.
Number of states which gain in representation 25, 12 east of the Mississippi and 13 west of the Mississippi.
Total increase in number of representatives 44, of which 24 will be given to states east of the Mississippi and 20 to states west of the Mississippi.

Washington, D. C.—The congressional reapportionment under the 1910 census is receiving the close attention of the committee on census. Chairman Crumpacker of Pennsylvania, together with his associates, have been carefully digesting the statistical calculations compiled by the census bureau. No official statements are given out but it is understood from an authoritative source that as the matter now stands it is likely that the basis of the representation will be figured on one representative for every 211,700 of population.

On this basis of representation no state will have less than its present number and the gain of 44 in the house of representatives will be about evenly divided between the various sections.

PENNSY ROAD TO INCREASE STOCK

Railroad System by Addition Will Become $600,000,000 Corporation— Authority of Stockholders Asked on Increase.

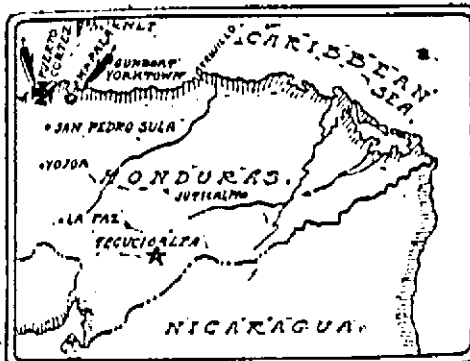

New York, Jan. 12. — Directors of the Pennsylvania railroad at a recent meeting decided to present to the stockholders at the annual meeting in March a proposition to increase the capital stock by $100,000,000. Upon the authorization of the increase, according to present plans, there will be offered at par to stockholders an amount of the new stock equal to 10 per cent of that at present outstanding, or approximately $41,000,000. The money will be used in refunding a few securities that mature this year, in so-called relief freight lines designed to make the operation of the New York terminals more efficient, and for minor improvements along the route from this city to Pittsburgh.

The Pennsylvania has now outstanding a greater capital stock than has any other railroad. The authorized amount is $600,000,000, of which $412,600,000 had been issued at the time of the last report. The remainder is held in the treasury as security for convertible bonds issued and transferable into common stock. In regard to the proposed new issue, President McCrea said:

"The company's needs of this year, to provide maturing obligations and necessary improvements require the raising of between $30,000,000 and $40,000,000. It is, therefore, proposed, should the resolution submitted by the directors to the stockholders meet with favorable action, to make a stock allotment of 10 per cent at par payable half on May 31 and the other half on Aug. 31.

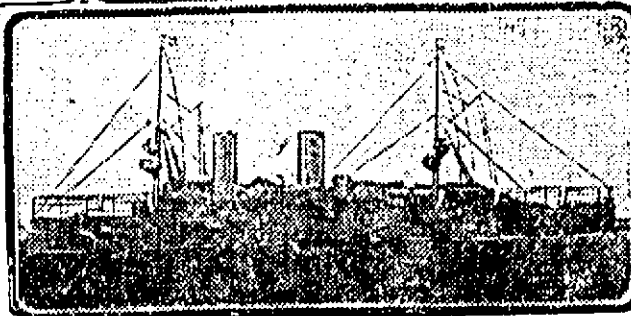

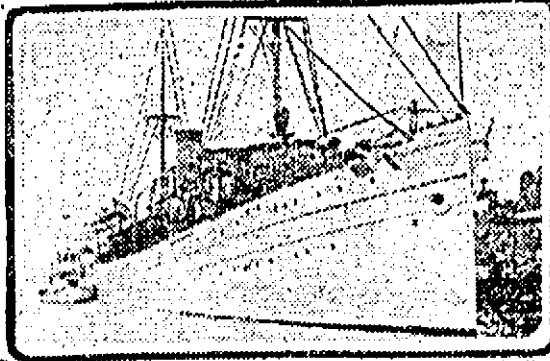

"It is not the intention at this time to issue any part of the $100,000,000 for which allotment is asked, excepting so much as is necessary to supply this proposed issue of 10 per cent, but the authority is now asked for that the directors may be able to make further issues of stock from time to time in the future as the requirements of the company may make such issues necessary."

It has long been the policy of the Pennsylvania to secure authorization of new stock issues long in advance of the actual issue, so that the management might take immediate advantage of any favorable condition of the money market for the sale of stock or convertible bonds. In 1905, when the stock was increased from $250,000,000 to $400,000,000, a considerable part of the additional $150,000,000, was retained in the treasury some time. That will continue to be the policy, bankers said, now that the company is about to become a $600,000,000 corporation.

HONDURAN REVOLT SET FOR JANUARY 1.

Map showing the location of the principal points mentioned in dispatches, with the two United States steamships, Yorktown and Tacoma, placed at the point of vantage, Puerto Cortez, awaiting developments and quietly watching the former American naval ship Hornet, which is alleged to have been refitted for duty as a part of the filibustering expedition. a sharp lookout for the alleged filibustering expedition on board the Hornet. The American consul here is Claudio L. Dawson of Anderson, S. C. Commander A. H. Davis is in charge of the United States cruiser Tacoma. The Honduran navy on the north coast consists of one vessel, the Tacumbia. President Miguel Davila was placed in power by Juan Zelaya, the one-time dictator in Nicaragua. He is thought that the revolutionists will have little real fighting when a concerted attempt is finally made, and that the present government will tumble after the first effort.

After Puerto Cortez is captured the real fighting will occur at San Pedro Sula, 57 miles away. Tranches have been dug and 50,000 rounds of ammunition supplied.

Cadillac, Mich.—Like Cinchamus of old, Ad Wolgast is to turn from the plowshare to the spotlight. The inevitable battle between the title holder and the plucky British fighter who conquered the Dane cannot long be postponed. Wolgast states he is willing to meet Moran any time a suitable purse is hung up. In the meantime he is getting into shape for the greatest battle of his life. His training takes on the nature of strenuous work on his farm, where he is to be seen plowing and doing other farm labor.

Wolgast is in the pink of condition, never felt better and confidently expects to land the Britisher when the fight is pulled off.

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON.

IN A BOOK of essays that I was reading the other day this sentence smote me into thoughtfulness:

"How many, many homes there are from which gaiety has been banished not by sorrow but by grievances and complaints."

If I were a minister I think I should preach on that thought just about once a year.

I was talking with a young girl the other day who had just lost her sister. It was the first death in a family of six.

"Do you know what one of the saddest thoughts is to me?" she said. "It's the thought that while we had each other before that terrible thing happened we weren't half so happy as we should have been. We let the most foolish little quarrels and grievances and troubles make us unhappy. Just think of it! When we had each other and ought to have been perfectly happy. It makes me fairly wild to think of it."

I wonder if there is anyone who after a loss does not think something like that. "Why wasn't I happier when I had so much to make me happy? Why did I let little things keep me from being happy?"

You people who have all your dear ones with you, who have one of those households where there is no "vacant chair" are you making the most of that great blessing?

Are you being as happy as you ought to be? Or are you letting "grievances and complaints" and other little troubles and annoyances mar that precious happiness?

Did this Christmas which has just passed you have a bitter, sweet memory of how "big brother" used to bring his presents down Christmas eve for mother to help him wrap them up, or how little sister did scream last year when she found it was actually a "real live gold ring," to add to your day?

But are you as absolutely contentedly happy as you should have been? Or did you let some little misunderstanding, some foolish dissatisfaction taint that happiness?

Some day when there is a vacant chair will you have to say, "Oh, if I had only been happier when I could have!"

And then you people who HAVE one or two vacant chairs, who can't be as cloudlessly happy as you used to be, are you being as happy as you can be with what you have left? You look back on "the day before" with longing. Do you realize that you may sometime look back on these present days with equal longing? Are you making the most of them?

You don't like to be reminded of such dismal possibilities, you say. Forgive me, I know it is time enough to feel sorrow when it comes. But don't you think my suggestion is a wise one?

The KATHARINE KIP CABINET

ILL cap'n burns, the pig falls from the spit, The clock hath struck twelve upon the bell, My mistress made it one upon my cheek, She is hot because the meat is cold, The meat is cold because you came not home.

What to Have for Supper.

Three-Leaf Clover Rolls.—Make the dough into three very small bladders and bake in buttered muffin pans when risen.

Italian Potatoes.—Mix two cups of mashed potatoes with a teaspoonful of onion juice, one tablespoonful of chopped parsley, one egg yolk well beaten and the whites of four eggs beaten stiff, one-half a cup of grated cheese and salt and pepper to taste. Mix lightly in a baking dish and bake brown.

Milk Toast.—Prepare the toast by drying well before toasting a golden brown. Dip the edges in hot water, butter well and pour over the following white sauce: Melt three tablespoonfuls of butter in a sauce pan, add three tablespoonfuls of flour, salt and pepper and two cups of milk. Cook until smooth, then add a hard cooked egg, chopped or put through the ricer.

Maple Custard.—Beat six eggs slightly, mix carefully with three cups of milk, a pinch of salt and half a cup of thick maple sirup. Put into cups and set in a pan of water to cook. The custard is sufficiently cooked when a knife thrust into the custard comes out clean.

Orange Cake.—Cream three-fourths of a cup of butter, add one and a fourth cups of sugar gradually, then the yolks of six eggs well beaten, one-half a cup of cold water, two and a half cups of pastry flour well stirred with four teaspoonfuls of baking powder. Beat ten minutes.

Filling.—Cook together one egg, a cup of sugar, juice and rind of half an orange, a teaspoonful of lemon juice and two tablespoonfuls of flour, a tablespoonful of butter, all cooked until smooth.

Cabbage and Pepper Salad.—Cut crisp, tender cabbage in shreds, add a chopped green pepper and boiled dressing. A few nuts may be added to make it more elegant.

Has Large Parish.

Rev. W. H. Law of Buffalo has the largest parish in America. It is 1,800 miles long by 300 wide and takes in the stretch from Buffalo to Duluth. Dr. Law is known as the skyplot of the great lakes and goes from one vessel to another holding services, and visits the lighthouses whenever possible. The word will be carried under all circumstances.

Revenue Producers.

Kicker—"The magazines are charged with causing a postal deficit." Bocker—"But think of the stamps sold for all the poems sent to there."

STYLISH COAT SUIT.

This dressy coat suit of very dark green broadcloth is given the popular and fashionable touch by the use of black velvet for trimming purposes. It forms a panel front and extends around sides and back in a deep band as indicated by cut. The coat, a short-waisted model, has a vest and cuffs of velvet, and the buttons used for closing of coat and decorative purposes on skirt and cuffs are black crochets.

A huge black silk beaver hat with white ostrich pompon and black albatross and a long scarf of ermine prove a picturesque finishing touch.

Just Stood Pat.

Talk about between two fires—a Camden man was aroused by his wife the other night, who said she thought a burglar was in the house and wanted papa to go downstairs and chase him. Papa promptly declined.

"What's the matter?" scornfully asked his wife. "Are you afraid?" "No," replied the old man, replacing his head upon the pillow, "but while I'm downstairs chasing the burglar you'll be going through my clothes, so it's about six in one and half a dozen in the other."

Gingerbread Barometer.

A reliable barometer has been manufactured out of gingerbread. When it is fair the gingerbread is crisp, but when it is going to rain the "barometer" is soft and spongy. Its designer doesn't tell what to do with the gingerbread when it grows stale, but he probably eats it before then.

Happy Memories.

Herr Blalthead—I never can make out why people make such a fuss when they find a hair in their soup. In me it awakens nothing but the most pleasant recollections.—Luffballon.

A DIFFERENCE

She (a studious maid)—There is an old legend that death used to ride a pale horse. He (a flippant youth)—Yes; but that was before the day of the automobile.

RATHER PERSONAL

"That new man that I employed last week," said the barber, "was not a success." "What was the matter with him?" "Why, a lady came in to have her hair dressed, and he asked her if she would like to have it done while she waited."

HE HAD NEVER GIVEN UP A SEAT.

Lady Visitor—I notice that man hasn't taken his eyes off that paper since we've been here. Keeper—No, he imagines that he's in a crowded street car.

It pays to read the ads.

CAUSE OF THE QUARREL

"What was the cause of your quarrel?" asked the judge, addressing the lady who wanted a divorce. "I merely suggested when he complained because the golf club raised the dues, that he resign and get the exercise he needed by mowing the lawn."

"And are you sure that was all?" "Well, he wanted me to resign from my domestic science class and take a course of domestic science in the kitchen."

NOT ENCOURAGING.

"What's the matter, sonnet? You look as if you had heard bad news?" "Well, it isn't exactly what one would call cheerful news. I gave out an interview yesterday in which I said that I had decided to retire at the end of my present term."

"You?" "I've just got a telegram from home saying my constituents held a grand ratification meeting last night."

SYSTEM FULL OF URIC ACID—THE GREAT KIDNEY REMEDY CURED.

Two years ago I was very sick and after being treated by several of the best physicians in Clinton, I did not seem to get any better. I was confined to my bed. Seeing Dr. Kilmor's Swamp-Root advertised, I resolved to give it a trial. After using it for three weeks, I found I was gaining nicely, so I continued until I had taken a number of bottles. I am now restored to health and have continued my labor. My system was full of uric acid, but Swamp-Root cured me entirely. I am sixty years old. Yours very truly, W. C. COOK, Clinton, Iowa.

★ FORTY YEARS AGO ★

The Janesville Gazette, Jan. 12, 1871.—Jottings.—We learn that Mr. John Watson of this city has been injured near Thurston, where he was superintending railroad work. While walking on the summit of a bluff his foot caught on a stone, throwing him forward and striking his head on a stone. His skull was fractured by the concussion. No further particulars have been received.

A young lady named Louisa Wagner fell in the excavation on the corner of Main and Milwaukee streets, last evening about half past nine o'clock, injuring her severely on the hip and side and bruising her head considerably. The recent warm weather has softened the crust of the earth which extended over the excavation and in breaking off it has encroached slightly on the street. The dangerous locality has been further protected by a barricade of boxes which will prevent further accidents.

Two of the messenger boys of the legislature are from this city—Willie Holmes in the assembly, and Willie P. Bowen in the senate. Notwithstanding the other attractions the dime readings last evening were well attended. The seats were not as well filled as we have seen them on previous occasions, but the slight falling off in attendance was not due to any lack of interest, for the popularity of these readings is already established. The room looked beautiful last night, with its walls and ceilings decorated with Christmas evergreens, arranged in tasty festoons and arches. We heard only the closing song and recitation; the former by Miss Searle, and the latter by William Ebbetts, but if the balance of the program was of this high order we can truthfully say that the audience was handsomely entertained. The thermometer is fifty-six degrees above zero this afternoon.

Little Bed-Time Tales By EDITH HAVENS

Winter Roses

THE little flower fairies are about this morning," said Mrs. English, as she pointed to the frost-covered window in the dimly lit room.

"Flower fairies in the winter?" repeated Margaret, perplexed.

"What do you mean by that?" she continued.

Mrs. English laughed. "We will wait until, after breakfast and then while we go down town to do some shopping, I will introduce you to some of them," she said.

For the life of her Margaret couldn't understand, and she began to coax her mother to tell her more about them.

"Where are they? Can you see them? What do they do?" asked Margaret in rapid succession. But her mother only laughed and told her to wait until the morning meal had been eaten.

My—how long that breakfast seemed.

"Oh, mama, tell me just one thing," suddenly begged Margaret at one point of the meal. "Can I bring them home with me?"

"No," answered Mrs. English, "you cannot bring them home with you because they are so very busy here, there and everywhere. They could not possibly find time to come."

"Oh, I am so interested," said the little girl. "I'm all through breakfast now," she added.

But finally breakfast really was through, and a few moments later away went Margaret and her mother out into the cool, crisp morning air.

"In a little while I'll tell you," said Mrs. English, as she wrapped her fur more closely about her neck.

For five minutes they walked and all the time Margaret was coaxing. Suddenly she stopped, and looking up at her mother, said: "Oh—mother what rosy cheeks you have."

"And you, too," said Mrs. English, laughing. "There are your flower fairies."

"You see," continued Mrs. English, "you can't see these little fairies. They get up very early on very cold mornings like this, and after loading themselves down with quantities of winter roses—great red ones, they fly about unseen through the air waiting for the chance to lay a beautiful rose upon some person's cheek."

"And they have laid some already on ours," cried Margaret, clapping her hands with delight.

"Yes, dear," answered her mother. "Never was there a cold morning after that Margaret failed to love those little invisible flower fairies who drop roses on people's cheeks."

WILLIE WISE.

Might Happen.

GIACOMO CRIMI—BLACK HAND KIDNAPPER UNDER SENTENCE TO PRISON.

New York, N. Y.—The recent black hand kidnapping affairs, which have attracted so much attention, have been brought to a final close with the arrest and conviction of Giacomo Crimi.

At a secret meeting 22 men, alleged to know of the recent kidnapping affairs, were arrested and of these the boy, Giuseppe de Stefano, picked out the man who stole him. The others were let go.

It is planned to make a wholesale deportation of blackhanders from this country.

Sleepless Creatures.
There are several species of fish, reptiles and insects that never sleep during the whole of their existence. Among fish it is positively known that pike, salmon and gold fish at no time sleep; also that there are other members of the fish family that sleep only a few minutes during the course of a month. There are various species of flies that never indulge in slumber, and five species of serpents also that do not sleep.

Height Not Owing to Art.
There is a story told that when Charles I. met Henrietta Maria at Dover he was rather surprised at her height, and cast his eyes down at her feet, no doubt supposing that she wore the absurdly high heels then in vogue. Henrietta Maria guessed his thoughts and showed him her feet, saying: "Sir, I stand upon mine own feet, and have no help of art. Thus high I am, and I am no higher nor lower."

When Europe Shivered.

The winter of 1858 was very mild in the United States, but particularly severe in Europe. For the first time in the nineteenth century the river Po was frozen over at Ferrara, permitting for a long time the constant passage snow extended to Smyrna, the adjacent districts of Asia Minor, and the Greek islands were clothed in white.

STATE OF WISCONSIN--

County Court for Rock County.

Notice is hereby given that at a Regular Term of the County Court to be held in and for said County, at the Court House, in the City of Janesville, in said County, on the first Tuesday of September A. D. 1911, being September 5th, 1911 at nine o'clock a. m., the following matters will be heard considered, and adjusted:

All claims against George Hykes late of the City of Janesville in said County deceased.

Marriages at St. George's.

Hardly any church in Christendom can show a record so remarkable for marriages of aristocratic or remarkable people as St. George's, Hanover square, London, England.

This is explained by the fact that for more than a century St. George's enjoyed a practical monopoly, because the rectors refused to risk loss of fees by allowing their huge parish--which included the best part of the West end--to be subdivided. It was not until 1844 that Bishop Blomfield, who had acquired the patronage, was enabled to enforce the formation of several daughter parishes. Two of these--St. Paul's, Knightsbridge and St. Peter's,

Eaton square--having more ornate ceremonial and other attractions, have outlived the mother church in the race for fashionable functions.

The Domesticated College Girl.

In what other country would you find a college educated woman doing all of her housework, including washing and ironing, and often turning from presiding over the wash tub to go into the parlor to help one child in its practice of a difficult passage of Beethoven or Chopin, or who, after ten hours of cooking, and cleaning, sits down to tutor her boys in Latin and Greek for their college preparation? Yet this is no sporadic instance, but a type of wide representation, particularly throughout the west.
